

Alabama
Symphony
Orchestra

M O M E N T U M

A Symposium for Future Music Professionals: Day 1

Scheduling is ongoing - A finalized list of events will be available by January 15, 2024

Friday, February 2, 2024

8:30-9:30 am Registration
Alys Stephens Center

9:30 am Welcome, Dr. Brian Raphael Nabors
Keynote Address, T. Marie King
Jemison Concert Hall

10:00 am Panel Discussion: The Future of Classical Music

11:00 am Round Table Discussions:
Music Education, Recording Industry, Music Production, Higher Education,
Music Performance Professionals in the Recording Industry, Church Music
Alys Stephens Center Lobby

12:00 pm Concert: ASO's Celebration of Black History
Jemison Concert Hall

1:00 pm Lunch Break and ASO Meet & Greet

2:30 pm *Professional Development Sessions

3:30 pm Concert: ASO Chamber Groups Performance
Jemison Concert Hall

4:30 pm *Professional Development Sessions

5:30 pm Dinner Break

7:00 pm Concert: HBCU CELEBRATION!
Miles College Choir
Talladega College Drumline
Oakwood University Sinfonietta
Alabama State University Trombone Choir and Horn Quartet
Jemison Concert Hall

*Day 1 Professional Development Sessions include the following options available at 2:30 pm and 4:30 pm:
-Dr. Brian Nabors, Artistry as a Composing Professional
-Maestro Carlos Izcaray, The Journey to the Podium/Conducting Masterclass
-ASO Assistant Conductor Daniel Cho, A Professional's Guide to Auditions and How to WIN Them!

Alabama
Symphony
Orchestra

M O M E N T U M

A Symposium for Future Music Professionals: Day 2

Saturday, February 3, 2024

9:00 am Imani Winds, Presentation/Performance/Demo
Jemison Concert Hall

10:30 am Imani Winds, Chamber Coachings/Masterclass

12:00 pm Lunch Break

1:30 pm Professional Development Sessions:
Henry Panion III, PhD, Bridging the Gap: The Use of Music Technology as a Pathway to a Successful Career in the Music and Entertainment Industry
Jazz Flutist Kim Scott, Using Your Classical Foundation to Create Music Opportunities in a Modern World
ASO General Manager Jordaan Whitehead, Behind the Curtain-Production and Stage Management

3:00 pm Final Concert: ASO and Headliner, Imani Winds

Local Artists and Organizations will be set up in the Lobby of the Alys Stephens Center from 2 pm- 5 pm